BY _____ DEPUTY

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
FOR THE COUNTY OF MASON

IN THE MATTER OF EMERGENCY RESPONSE) SECOND AMENDED TO A THREAT TO PUBLIC HEALTH)
) ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
)
) RE: JUVENILE MATTERS

NO. 22-2-00002-23

THIS MATTER has come before the Court Sua Sponte, the Court finds as follows:

The Supreme Court of Washington has issued emergency orders regarding Superior Court operations in response to the public health emergency caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The orders have found that the serious danger posed by COVID-19 is good cause grant ongoing emergency authority to this court to adopt, modify, and suspend court rules and orders, and to take further actions concerning court operations, as warranted to address the current state of emergency; and

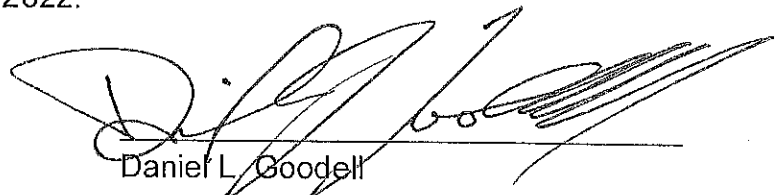

The Court entered an Administrative Order Re: Juvenile Matters on February 3, 2022. The Order was based, in part, upon concerns expressed by the Mason County Director of Community Services regarding the recent increase of the COVID-19 virus in the community and his recommendation that in-person hearings should be suspended at that time. The Court has remained in contact with the Mason County Director of Community Services who has signified a reduction of the COVID-19 virus in the community and no longer recommends a suspension of in-person hearings.

Based upon the above and adopting the further findings as set forth in the above-described Supreme Court orders, the Mason County Superior Court is taking the following actions and entering the following Orders:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Amendment to the Administrative Order Re: Juvenile Matters of February 3, 2022. The Mason County Superior Administrative Order Re: Juvenile Matters, entered on February 3, 2022, is amended and restated as set forth below:
2. Juvenile Offender Hearings. The Court will continue to offer virtual hearings by Zoom or other platform. The parties may appear virtually or in person at their discretion unless required to appear in person by the court or the hearing itself requires an in-person appearance as described in this order. Change of Plea Hearings will be allowed virtually only upon agreement of the parties and only if the parties appear by video or in person.
3. Disposition Hearings. The Respondent and his/her attorney and the representative of the State shall appear in person and abide by the COVID-19 protocols at all disposition hearings. Any victims/victim representatives may appear electronically through "Zoom" conferencing or other Court approved platform, or in person.
4. Fact-Finding Hearings. Fact-finding Hearings will held in person.

DATED this 11th day of March, 2022.

Daniel L. Goodell
Presiding Judge
