RE: Notice of Park Master Planning Work for Harvey Rendsland Park

The Mason County Board of County Commissioners would like to inform the public that the Mason County Parks and Trails Department will be conducting a park master planning process for Harvey Rendsland Park during the summer of 2011 and is inviting the public to participate. The purpose of the master planning work is to begin a process for future planning and potential development of Harvey Rendsland Park. This planning process is an opportunity for the public to provide suggestions for the future design and use of the park.

Harvey Rendsland Park is located at 10991 NE Belfair Tahuya Road. The park is about 15 acres and includes access to Jiggs Lake. Currently, the park site is undeveloped with the exception of an entry road, memorial, and small parking area near the lake. Harvey Rendsland Park was transferred from Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission to the County and is now managed by Mason County.

The meetings for the park master planning will be held in the Tahuya area, mostly likely at the park, this summer. Anyone who would like to participate in the planning process is asked to contact the Parks and Trails Department for further information
