

RESOLUTION NO. 19-84

REVENUE SHARING HANDICAPPED DISCRIMINATION REGULATIONS

WHEREAS, the County of Mason wishes to implement regulations prohibiting handicapped discrimination; and,

WHEREAS, the Office of Revenue Sharing published final regulations in the Federal Register prohibiting handicapped discrimination and,

THEREFORE, the County Commissioners of Mason County establish the following time table to ensure compliance with the regulations prohibiting handicapped discrimination:

1. Immediately prepare a public notice (copy attached) to give initial notification to the public, applicants and employees, that Mason County has a policy against discrimination.

2. Do a Self-evaluation prior to October 17, 1984 to evaluate programs and activities, policies and practices to determine areas of noncompliance with the Handicapped Discrimination Regulations and to make "nonstructural changes" to achieve compliance.

3. Prepare a Transition Plan if it is determined that "structural changes" are needed. Structural changes must be completed prior to October 17, 1986.

4. Make a copy of the Self-evaluation and the Transition Plan available to the public and maintain on file for three (3) years.

5. Designate a "responsible employee" to be included in the initial public notice (number 1 above).

6. Adopt prior to October 17, 1984 a grievance procedure to provide for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging handicapped discrimination.
