

RESOLUTION NO. 107-86

A RESOLUTION DECLARING SUPPORT FOR THE
HOOD CANAL REGIONAL PLANNING POLICY
AS THE OFFICIAL POLICY FOR GUIDING ACTIVITIES OF THE HOOD CANAL COORDINATING COUNCIL

WHEREAS, it is the intention of local jurisdictions within the Hood Canal Region to carry out Hood Canal watershed management in a consistent and cooperative manner in order to help assure maximum cost effectiveness of public expenditures and to better achieve mutually desired planning objectives; and

WHEREAS, the Hood Canal Coordinating Council of which Mason County is a member, has adopted a Hood Canal Regional Planning Policy to use in its efforts to maintain, preserve and enhance Hood Canal; and

WHEREAS, the Hood Canal Coordinating Council has fulfilled the directive set forth in the Washington State Ecological Commission Report, "The Future of Hood Canal"; and

WHEREAS, the Hood Canal Coordinating Council is a model for cooperative inter-jurisdictional efforts and may form the basis for programs enhancing and mitigating water quality in conformance with the Puget Sound Water Quality Authority Plan.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Hood Canal Regional Planning Policy be endorsed by Mason County as the official policy of the Hood Canal Coordinating Council.

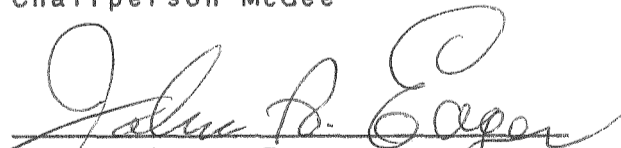

FURTHER, that the Hood Canal Coordinating Council will use the Hood Canal Regional Planning Policy as a guide as it works with member jurisdictions, State agencies and the Water Quality Authority on implementing strategies.

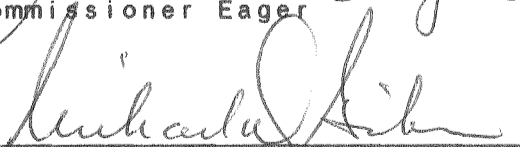

FURTHER, that Mason County will work with the Hood Canal Coordinating Council as it utilizes the Hood Canal Regional Planning Policy as a guide for implementing programs consistent with the Puget Sound Water Authority Plan for clean up preservation and enhancement of Puget Sound.

ADOPTED this 18th day of November, 1986.
